

WTM new office opening in western African country Ghana in Accra city on 1st March 2015

WTM launches a new office in western African country Ghana, in Accra city on 1st March 2015. Ghana is a major western African country with a solid growth track record. Ghana is the first Anglophone country where WTM has opened an office. We are implementing enterprise resource planning application, customer relationship management software, retail management software, human resource management software, payroll management software, business automation software and other. WTM's new office in Accra, Ghana manages our sales, marketing and development. It's a new opportunity for us to work in a leading western African country. WTM offers best product in African country Ghana as a result of a growth in both clientele and resources, and to further support its local ambitions. The Accra Ghana office will allow WTM to cater specifically to the needs of existing Ghana based clients as well as provide room for further expansion. WTM's country head Mr. David manages new office in Accra Ghana. He said "WTM continues to expand our local presence into key geographies across the globe. Our new Accra Ghana office is a key next step in this process and allows us to focus more closely on, and better serve, our important customer base in the African country.